

Radek Wejmelka

Associate

Radek Wejmelka specialises in commercial and civil law and in particular in corporate law, transformations, group restructurings with a focus on risk diversification, setting up holding structures and the regulation of shareholder relations. In corporate law, Radek particularly focuses on the corporate law of investment companies and investment funds and their activities in the capital markets. He also specialises in advising private clients and structuring the protection of private assets.

In the field of corporate law, Radek has been involved in a number of corporate transformations, including transformations of companies with a significant market share in the context of their specialisation, and the restructuring of national and international business groups.

In the field of advising private clients, he focuses on structuring the holding and protection of private assets, building private holdings, including trusts and qualified investor funds, and intergenerational capital transfer matters, including family office governance (setting up the internal functioning of private structures).

Prior to joining our law firm in 2017, Radek worked for several years at a Czech law firm with a focus on general law practice, where he gained extensive experience in corporate law, civil law, commercial law, family law, and healthcare law with a focus on the pharmaceutical industry.

Projects

- introducing a bond managerial program within a leading financial advisory group
- restructuring of a leading retail chain in connection with the sale of a shopping centre
- establishing and incorporating a qualified investor fund for the implementation of development projects
- transformation and restructuring of a major regional sports facility operator
- corporate restructuring of a major financing provider
- private restructuring of a major financial advisory group
- acquisition of the founding shares of a qualified investor fund and review of the corporate setting up and internal functioning of the fund

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2018), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

E: radek.wejmelka@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 255 000 683