

Petra Čorba Stark

Counsel

Petra Čorba Stark specialises in acquisitions and divestitures of companies, corporate law, and capital markets. In the field of acquisitions and divestitures, Petra has been involved in a number of transactions (both on the sellers' and buyers' side) mainly in the telecommunications, transport, energy, manufacturing and private equity sectors. In the field of corporate law, she specialises in corporate reorganisations and transformations, advising on the organisation of general meetings, shareholders' rights and corporate governance issues. In the field of capital markets, Petra focuses primarily on securities dispositions and takeover bids.

Prior to joining our firm in 2022, Petra worked in a major international law firm, leading the corporate team and specialising in transactional advice and commercial law, including public procurement. Prior to that, she worked in a major Slovak law firm and as in-house legal counsel for the largest petrochemical company in Slovakia.

Projects

- advising a major international insurance group on the sale of its portfolio in Slovakia
- advising a leading investment group operating in Central and Eastern Europe on the acquisition of a major office building in Bratislava
- advising a global private equity investor on the acquisition of a major pharmaceutical group
- advising on the reorganisation of the Slovak part of a global technology company supplying energy and automation technologies
- advising on the reorganisation of the Slovak part of a global manufacturer of household and professional appliances
- advising an Irish provider of investment services and regulatory solutions on the acquisition of a software company
- advising a leading European carrier on public procurement procedures
- advising a global company providing professional services and solutions in the areas of corporate strategy, management consulting and digital technology on public procurement procedures
- advising a global transport platform as well as a major retail chain on corporate law in their entry into the Slovak market

Membership in professional associations

Slovak Bar Association

Languages

Slovak, English

Education

Pavol Jozef Šafárik Universit, Faculty of Law, Košice (2000), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

E: petra.stark@havelpartners.sk

T: +421 910 524 822